Get your clinical test results without returning to the laboratory

When you visit the laboratory, you can ask them to send your results online. misResultados® offers clinical laboratories this service so that you as a patient can access your clinical test results online, quickly and safely. The process is easy and it begins when you visit the laboratory.

Steps to follow at the laboratory:

1. REGISTER YOUR EMAIL

Laboratory personnel will ask for your email address. You will receive an email notification every time one of your results is ready.

2. WAIT FOR A RECEIPT OF MISRESULTADOS®

At the end of the process, laboratory personnel will give you a receipt. It contains information necessary for you to access your results. It is important to keep this receipt in a safe place.
